Eligibility

- All students who audition must be passing ALL of their classes at each round of auditions.
- Students who are found to be ineligible or end up dropping out of the contest will not receive a refund for the $20 contest fee.

Audition and Concert Attendance

- Once a student turns in this sheet with payment, they are obligated to audition at every round of auditions for which they qualify.
- Otherwise, if they do not follow through with the commitment to audition at the next round, the consequences below will be administered to the student.
 - The student will not be considered for a Pop Show (or similar events) solo/small group.
 - The student will not be considered for any future choir scholarships.
 - The student's decision may be a factor in their placement into next year's choirs (applies to current 9-11th grade students).

Rehearsals and Practice Habits

- Rehearsals are optional, but highly encouraged. Students will be tested individually on their skills, and will be dropped from the process if found to be lacking.
- Students who are auditioning are expected to practice their music every day.
- If the director does not feel a student is working on the music outside of rehearsals, the director reserves the right to drop that student from the audition process. Consequences above may be put into effect.
- If a student is in the Chamber Choir (where All State participation is required), they will be in danger of being removed from the ensemble if the requirement is not fulfilled.
- If the student is dropped from the audition process after the fees have been paid, the student will not receive any refund for any fees incurred.
